

If you're a member of any academic community, you're invited!

CJUU's North American Branch

Zoom meetings 3rd Fri of each month 12-1 pm Eastern time

Climate Justice Universities Union (CJUU), "an international collective advancing the transformative potential of higher education to accelerate a just transition and climate justice," has a new North American branch! Join us to...

- promote climate, environmental, & social justice;
- fight fossil fuel corporate capture of our universities through disassociation & divestment;
- stand up for climate science, truth, and academic freedom;
- teach, research, and collaborate in campus operations in ways that foster genuine and lasting community, agency, equity, and sustainability; and
- share resources and nurture connections.

Register for our monthly zooms, & join our mailing list and/or interest/working groups here:

- Addressing the Polycrisis
- Campus Policies/Shared Governance
- Resisting AI/Big Tech in Higher Education

We support...

Collaboration (compile and share scholarly resources, pedagogical tools, organizing tips)

Talks (watch our first sponsored panel: Resisting AI and Big Tech)

Actions (change university policies on campus, within systems, and beyond!)

Connections (share campus news, meet colleagues, & network within/across institutions)

Questions? Contact Sabine (vonmering@brandeis.edu), Parke (parke.wilde@tufts.edu), Derede (dlarthur@ucsc.edu), Amy (amy.woodson-boulton@lmu.edu), or Mary (mbrook@richmond.edu).

What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of difference you want to make.
